Discoveries

Gradier and Kneipp facility Altaussee

The Altaussee salt bath consists of a round structure covered with pine branches and a square structure decorated with pine cones. Since 1956, brine from the Altaussee salt mine has been flowing directly onto the pine branches and wood, releasing fine salt aerosols and essential oils. These purify the air and have a particularly beneficial effect on respiratory diseases such as asthma or pollen allergies.

Indoor Tennis Centre Bad Mitterndorf

The Bad Mitterndorf indoor tennis center offers ideal conditions for tennis enthusiasts all year round. With three granulate indoor courts, it is suitable for both recreational players and ambitious athletes. Bookings can be made conveniently online via the booking system. Mike's Tennis Shop provides equipment and accessories directly on site.

Liegloch - cave

The Liegloch near Tauplitz is a fascinating cave whose enormous entrance is located at 1,290 m above sea level. With a width of up to 15 m and a height of 10 m, the entrance is impressive even from a distance. The trail leading there starts in the district of Hollam and takes about 45 minutes through idyllic forests, rewarding visitors with a special combination of nature and mystical atmosphere. Legends have surrounded the Liegloch for centuries, which was also used as a place of refuge in the past.
